INTRODUCTION TO BEANSTALK TELECOM

Beanstalk Telecom believes in helping, educating and supporting our customers in all areas of the telecommunications industry. To many companies telecoms is just too hard to understand or keep up with. Why not have a 'health check' performed by industry experts to see if indeed you are getting the best 'value for money' from your existing suppliers.

Our company is headed by people that have over 30 years experience of working in the industry and supporting various sizes of organisations. Our primary goal is to provide the best value for money services in the industry together with first class customer service and support. We are dedicated to our customer and wish to establish relationships with our customers that will exist for many years to come.

'Making your decision easy'

Chris Horne, Telecoms Manager - AstraZeneca

They have helped identify significant savings for AstraZeneca and are prepared to go that 'extra mile' and as such we will continue to use their expertise in helping us with various telecoms related projects.
